OLD NEWSPAPERS

FOR SALE

AT THIS OFFICE!

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Nattie Travis is quite sick with the fever.

Very few people have been in shopping this week.

William Farmer paid McKenzie a hurried visit Sunday.

W. B. Vickers, of near Enloe, was in the city Monday.

Col. John A. Barnes, of near Big Sandy, was in town Monday.

W. H. Mannon went to Nashville Wednesday on business.

Professor Sin Clair, of McKenzie, was in the city Wednesday.

Sheriff Rushing has had the court house well cleaned out and repaired.

Work on the new bank building will be commenced during the present month.

Malarial fevers are beginning to make their appearance on the water courses.

Prof. Ab. Baber, of Holladay, was mingling with his Camden friends Tuesday.

Next Thursday is election day.
The Democratic nominees are confident of success.

A great deal of stave timber is being delivered at the stave factory in South Camden.

Miss Fannie Travis visited friends at Huntingdon Wednesday, to remain several days.

J. T. Bowles is having his residence repaired and other needed improvements added.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. B. Lewis went to Chattanooga last week, returning home Sunday.

Thomas H. Bateman has moved into his new residence near Brooklyn Heights, on Paris street.

Several wagon loads of leaf tobacco have been delivered at this market during the past week.

A. C. McRae has moved into his new residence in the south part of town, near the Benton Seminary.

Quite a number from this place attended the singing services at Pleasant Valley Church Sunday.

The public singing at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Wednesday evening was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben. F. Hatley are spending a few days this week in the southern part of the county visiting friends.

Mrs. Charley Holland, residing in the vicinity of Cowell Chapel, is slowly recovering from an attack of typhoid fever.

THE CHRONICLE will be full-size next week, but will not be issued until the official returns of the election can be given.

U. A. Potts, the accommodating traveling salesman for Jehanboke & Sons, hatters, Louisville, Ky., was in the city yesterday.

There seems to be a dearth of spring chickens in the country.
At least very few have been sold on the market at this place.

The citizens of the Big Sandy neighborhood contemplate organizing a Buchanan club on the night of August 8, in the eighth civil district.

Mrs. Dora Graham, of Houston, Tex., who has been spending several weeks at Monteagle, visited relatives at this place the first of the week.

Vegetables and fruit are scarcer in this market than ever known before. The protracted dry weather has absolutely destroyed the vegetable gardens.

Marriage Licenses.

The following couples have secured license to marry since our last report:

J. W. Matheny and Belle Trip.
John Lynch and Elizabeth Webb.

A. M. Cooley and Julia Utley.
H. G. Earp and T. E. Barnes.

Died in Texas.

Mr. James Yarbrough, son of Mrs. Mary Yarbrough, of this place, died of consumption at Dallas, Tex., last Friday. His remains were brought to Camden, arriving Thursday morning, and were interred in Camden cemetery in the afternoon.

Mr. Yarbrough was raised in Camden, but had lived in Texas for several years previous to his death. He was unmarried, and leaves a mother, three brothers, and one sister to mourn his death.

Another Killing at Paris.

Our sister town of Paris still holds her own in the way of murders, the last having occurred Wednesday morning. Two youths John Head and Clinton Dunlap, aged seventeen and nineteen, respectively, became engaged in a quarrel, and Head drew his pistol and fired at Dunlap killing him instantly. The parties are highly connected. Head being the eldest son of John J. Head, one of the leading merchants of the place, and the deceased was a grandson of General Atkins, and a nephew of the wife of Governor Porter.

Quarterly Conference.

The third quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the Camden circuit, will be held at Mount Carmel, August 2 and 3, 1890.

Protracted services for the Camden circuit will commence with the quarterly conference, at the following places:

Morris Chapel, second Sunday in August; Post-oak, the third Sunday; Shiloh, the fourth Sunday; Cowell Chapel, the fifth Sunday; Liberty, the first Sunday in September; Bethlehem, the second Sunday; and Camden, the third Sunday.

Dear brethren, I have made these appointments with a desire to suit the convenience of as near all the people as possible, and I hope that everybody will be prepared to do their part in this work, and expect a great revival.

YOUR PASTOR.

Asserts His Democracy.

[Advertisement.]

WAY, TENN., July 29, 1890.—I see an article in THE CHRONICLE of July 11th trying to keep the voters of this county from voting their sentiments.

I have good reasons for not being a candidate before the primary.
And as for me getting Democratic votes, I know that I am not mistaken as to that—I will get as good Democratic votes as the one that wrote that article.

I respectfully solicit the votes of Benton County. I think I have the same right that the nominees have, and I heard one of them say that he wanted all the votes he could get—white or black.

As for me not being a Democrat, I said was, and I say so yet, and if it takes a sacrifice of principle to get a little county office, I do not want it. I think a man ought to be a Democrat or a Republican from principle.

Yours, respectfully,

B. F. DAVIDSON.

HON. LEWIS T. BAXTER was nominated Wednesday as the Republican candidate for governor of Tennessee.

A CONVENTION of colored reformers met in Nashville Tuesday. The convention condemned the Force bill, but endorsed the Harrison administration.

THE relations between Harrison and his Secretary of State, James G. Blaine, is said to be strained.
It is likely Mr. Blaine will resign in the near future.

THROUGHOUT Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and in Mexico no rain has fallen for months, and thousands of cattle are lying dead in the parched valleys, and thousands more are dying for want of grass and water.

THE election bill before Congress has, more than anything else, helped to cement the Democratic party of the South. It seems that every effort the Republicans make to break the solid South tends to make it more solid.

THE Republican party went outside the constitution to free the negro; to strengthen and secure itself in power it enfranchised the negro; and with the presumption of Satan, it has tried to enforce negro supremacy, socially and politically, on the white people of the South. And with all this, together with the bitter animosity they continue to entertain toward the South and southern people, there are men in the South, southern born men, who affiliate cheek, by jowl, with this same Republican party. They remind us most sensibly of a number of men who lived in this country during the reign of King George.

As a general thing the present Republican representatives in Congress are refusing to become candidates for re-election. They can not face their constituents on their despicable record in the present Congress. They know that they would be buried beneath an avalanche of votes of an outraged constituency. During the next campaign new men will be put in the field who can not be charged with the infamy of the present members, and they will endeavor to gull the people in this way, and if elected, the new men will be but the tools of the bosses and prove as bad or worse than their predecessors.

CENSUS COMMISSIONER PORTER is meeting with much trouble and annoyance in his census work. At the beginning the popular opinion was against him, and it was generally believed that the census would be manipulated by him for partisan purposes, and his work was closely watched from the start, in the large cities especially. When the enumerators began making their reports, and the lists were being footed up, a storm of indignation and objections to the enumeration came in from all over the country. Enumeration by many cities was taken that showed great errors in the enumeration by the Government, and petitions were sent in for re-counts, and these petitions are still being sent in. In many instances a re-count has been allowed, and the result has shown the incorrectness of the first count in almost every instance. Although the commissioner may have tried to have the work correctly done, yet a strong suspicion exists that the census is being manipulated for partisan purposes.
